

Press Release – Strategic Exit Advisors Adds Three Summer Interns to its Roster

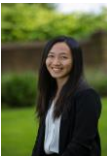

Doylestown, PA – June 23, 2020. Strategic Exit Advisors (SEA) is pleased to announce the hiring of three summer interns.

“The opportunities afforded these young adults is invaluable,” says Bob Cahill, Managing Director of SEA. “We provide them with real-life scenarios of the investment banking industry ... something these students would not be exposed to in the classroom or a larger banking institution.”

SEA Class of 2020

Chad Pingatore, Dickinson College
International Business and Management major.

Amy Sun, University of Pennsylvania
Finance and Marketing major with a minor in Cinema Studies.

Mike Ufberg, Princeton University
Economics major.

“We believe it’s important to offer opportunities to our future leaders, which is why we invite interns to join our team each summer. I’m especially excited about this year’s class, as they are an enthusiastic, energetic and intelligent group of young adults,” states Curt Cyliax, Managing Director of SEA.

About Strategic Exit Advisors: SEA is an investment bank focused on mergers and acquisitions in the Life Sciences, B2B Services, and other industries, helping CEOs with revenues of $5 to $100 million. SEA delivers the same rigorous M&A process to firms that the Fortune 500 companies enjoy by matching sellers with strategic buyers from around the globe. Since 2007, SEA has advised owners of privately held businesses in the middle market to execute the successful sale of their businesses. SEA offers complimentary consultations to business owners regarding the M&A process and the value of their businesses. www.se-adv.com

